KEY RISKS
WHAT ARE THE KEY RISKS OF THIS INVESTMENT? The value of the product and its dividends or coupons may rise or fall. These risk factors may cause you to lose some or all of your investment:	Refer to paragraphs 9.1 and 9.2 of the Singapore Prospectus for further information on risks of the product.
Market and Credit Risks
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You are exposed to Stock Specific Risk. Prices of a particular stock may fluctuate in response to the circumstances affecting individual companies such as adverse financial performance, news of a possible merger or loss of key personnel of a company. Any adverse price movements of such stock will adversely affect the Fund's NAV.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You are exposed to Country Risk. Investments of the Fund in any country may be affected by changes in the economic and political climate, restriction on currency repatriation or other developments in the law or regulations of the countries in which the Fund invests in. This may cause the NAV of the Fund or prices of units to fall. • You are exposed to Currency Risk. Investors should be aware that if the currencies in which the investments are denominated in depreciate against the USD (base currency), this will have an adverse effect on the NAV of the Fund and vice versa. Investors should also be aware that currency risk is applicable to Class(es) (e.g. Class SGD) which is denominated in a different currency other than the USD. The impact of the exchange rate movement between the USD and the currency denomination of the respective Class(es) may result in a depreciation of the value of your holdings as expressed in the currency denomination of the respective Class(es). When deemed necessary, the Manager may utilise derivative instruments, subject to prevailing GUTF, to hedge currency risk. Currently, the Manager does not seek to mitigate the currency risk. If the Fund utilises derivative for hedging against the base currency of the Fund, investors should note that as a result of hedging, the Fund will not be able to enjoy the full benefits of currency movement in the event of a favourable movement of currency. • You are exposed to Credit and Default Risk. Credit risk relates to the creditworthiness of the securities issuers or counterparties and their expected ability to make timely payment of interest and/or principal. Any adverse situations faced by the issuer or counterparties may impact the value as well as liquidity of the investments. Default risk relates to the risk that a securities issuer or counterparties either defaulting on payments or failing to make payments in a timely manner which will in turn adversely affect the value of the investments. This could adversely affect the value of the Fund. • You are exposed to Interest Rate Risk. Interest rate risk refers to the impact of interest rate changes on the valuation of debt securities and money market instruments. When interest rates rise, debt securities and money market instruments prices generally decline and this may lower the market value of the Fund's investment in debt securities and money market instruments. • You are exposed to Risk associated with investing in CIS. Since the Fund may invest into CIS, there is a risk of concentration into CIS, in which the CIS's management company has absolute discretion over the CIS's investment technique and knowledge, operational controls and management. In the event of mismanagement of the CIS and/or the management company, the NAV of the Fund, which invests into those CIS would be affected negatively. Should the situation arise, we will seek for another CIS that is consistent with the objective of the Fund.
Liquidity Risks
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Liquidity risk refers to the ease of liquidating an asset without causing market dislocation. This depends on the supply and demand as well as the asset's volume or amount traded in the market. If the Fund holds assets that are illiquid or difficult to dispose, or due to liquidity policy applied by the underlying CIS (e.g. suspension of the CIS), the value of the Fund and consequently the value of Unit Holders' investments in the Fund, may be negatively affected. • The Fund is not listed and there is no secondary market for its Units. You can only redeem your investment on a Dealing Day. All redemption requests should be made to the Manager. The Manager may, with the approval of the Trustee, suspend the subscription, switching and redemption of Units during certain circumstances specified in the Singapore Prospectus and Deed.
Product-Specific Risks
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You are exposed to Emerging Markets Risk. Investment in emerging markets may involve a higher degree of risk due to the greater possibility of political or economic instability and societal tensions. Emerging markets are markets that are, by definition, "in a state of transition" and are therefore exposed to rapid political change and economic declines. • You are exposed to Derivatives Risk. Subject to the Standards of Qualifying CIS and GUTF, the Fund may invest in derivatives for purposes of hedging and it may be subject to risks associated with such investments. Investments in derivatives may require the deposit of initial margin and additional deposit of margin on short notice if the market moves against the investment positions. If no provision is made for the required margin within the prescribed time, the Fund's investments may be liquidated at a loss.
